

HOW WE WORK

The R Group is a specialist retail and change management consultancy. Our clients benefit from our depth of industry experience, breadth of functional expertise and world class consulting capability.

We are driven by results and the success of our clients. Our approach is to embrace the clients' business knowledge and engage with their team to develop solutions that fit their business and deliver sustainable benefits.

The R Groups' broad experience in operational roles and staff management, enables us to understand the business environment and engage your team with ease.

Our proven tools, techniques and programme management is world class - we are experts at diagnostic, solution design and delivery. Our case studies are testimony to this!